THE GAZETTE.

FRIDAY EVENING, AUGUST 30.

REMARKABLE INCIDENT. - As a little son of J. Harvey Koiner was going to Fishersville several days ago his attention was attracted by a fight between a black snake and a copperhead. After watching them until the epperhead was killed, he dismounted and threw a stone at the black snake, but failed to strike it. The snake, thereupon, erecting its head, approached the boy, who started to run, but was soon overtaken, and the ugly thing by winding around his legs completely stopped his locomotion. When it had reached his body, on its way to his neck, he had courage enough to grasp it just back of the head, and strangle it. The little fellow says he yelled manfully, but there was no one in hearing distance. New Market Val.

DENIED. - Some of the newspapers a few weeks since, were parading a correspondence said to have passed between Queen Victoria and Miss Nellie Grant. The Uncen was represented as declaring she would lay aside her sovereign dignity and receive the Miss Nellie as "a lady"-and Miss Nellie was represented as ut tering a great mass of namby pamby nonsense for the extraordinary honor accorded her. The Philadelphia Press now admits that the Queen's letter has been denied "on authority." Nothing is said about Miss Nellie's!

RISE IN SALT AT LIVERPOOL. - A telegram from Liverpool was received in Richmond yesterday stating that owing to the scarcity of coal the salt manufacturers there had stopped work, which action on their part had caused an advance in the price of over fifty per cent. With a light stock in this country, and none to be shipped from the other side, we may expect much higher prices here. It was quoted yesterday at $2.65 to $2.75 from the wharf, and $2.75 to $3 from store. -Richmond Dispatch.

aug 11-w5w ST. JOHN'S ACADEMY ALEXANDRIA, VA.
The Thirty-Fourth Annual Session of St.
John's Academy will begin September 2d, 1872. The course of instruction is that of a high school, and, as the experience of many years has shown, it affords as practical an education as any reflecting man can desire for his sons, though other subjects than book-keeping and arithmetic receive some attention. The short drill, under arms, which precedes each daily session, having been found most advantageous both to the health of the students and the discipline of the school, all who are not physically disqualified are re-quired to participate in it; though, as no stu-
